

Dear student,

We are contacting you regarding the opening of a position as a lead detective in Idiomas Católica's Private Detective Agency.

Our Agency is the best in the field and being part of it would help you gain valuable experience for future positions. Your academic record has been carefully assessed and we're glad to offer you a Junior Detective position. We offer a starting salary of £5000 a month with full fringe benefits and a probation period of one class.

In order to be offered a full time position in our agency you will have to pass a test which will assess your deduction skills. Please contact the closest senior detective (your teacher) for further information.

Should you decide not to accept this position, this letter will self-destruct in 10 seconds.

Best,

Chief Detective Officer
